Why can't we try and understand all these images are out of hand?

And in demand by every man that think he's on his own
And all this time we've been heading nowhere really fast

Never knowing that the past would make us feel alone

Now, that all the cover's blown
You can see how much you've thrown out the door
Don't wait before you try and let this go

You've got this dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

This dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

When will you see that the end will come eventually?
But you can't just let it be, you have to take control
And grab a hold of the one thing that you can't let go
It doesn't matter what you know, you'll be stuck inside this hole

You've got this dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

This dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

You've got this dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

This dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

You've got this dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide

This dirty little secret
You're trying hard to keep it
Out of sight, out of mind
But you can't hide
