Life is like a castle built upon the sand
All the work is done but it will not stand
Your life is like a picture without any paint
It's left you feeling blank and a little incomplete
From the answers that you seek
All the questions that you have, all lie in Him

He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my road to take me home
He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my Father and my Friend

Life is overwhelming when you start to doubt
Have faith, He is with you here and now
So many questions you have asked along your way
Like, "Who I am? Where I've come from? Where will I go
When I leave here from this world"
Well, I have faith that heaven is within my reach

He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my road to take me home
He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my Father and my, Father and my Father and my Friend

He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my road to take me home
He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my Father and my Friend

He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my road to take me home
He is the way, the truth and the life
He's my Father and my, Father and my Friend
