I wanna be a transparency
Live my life so that you can see Elohim
No longer see a little boy in his teens
Getting by tryin' to fit in like an OG

But looking back it doesn't make any sense to me
How I could be nineteen yet so naive
I never really thought about eternity
I just did at the time what felt good to me

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

After the day that I graduated
That's when it set in being faded and inebriated
Dealing with the pains of my mom and dad's divorce
But that was '81 now I'm showing no remorse

And all those people that I used to know then
I've changed my ways and I just live for Him
At 4:20 every day you wanted me to blaze with you
But at the same time every day I'm just gonna pray for you

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

Yesterday's a memory in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said

I changed my ways, I'm never goin' back again
I'm never goin' back again

I'm never goin' back again
I'm never goin' back again
You're feeling, can you believe it

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

Yesterday's a memory in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
Can you believe it

Yesterday are just memories in my head
Paid the way and delivered me of my debt
My hindsight's twenty-twenty now so it's said
