Don't let emotion stop you Don't start to hesitate Don't let the fear you have Inside you start to resonate

Stop buying lies they sell you Stop wasting all our time Start looking for the Opportunity for us to shine

If you're afraid to fall You'll never make the climb

We are the fearless ones We are the loaded guns With nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

We are the chosen ones We'll never have to run There's nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

Let your fear motivate you Don't let it get you down You've got to get up Hold your head up high

It may be the only chance we've got For us to save the day No time to doubt it now Before it gets too late

We've got to make our move ?Cause we're the reckless youth

We are the fearless ones We are the loaded guns With nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

We are the chosen ones

We'll never have to run There's nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

Stop wasting our time Let?s step to the line Like soldiers we fight To the end of our lives

Let?s break the rules But don't play the fool ?Cause we are

Stop wasting our time Let?s step to the line Like soldiers we fight To the end of our lives

Let?s break the rules But don't play the fool ?Cause we are

We are the fearless ones We are the loaded guns With nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

We are the chosen ones We'll never have to run There's nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth

We are the fearless ones With nothing left to lose We are the reckless youth
