Hello how are you?
You know my name but you don't know who I am
You may think you do
But I try to cover up the best I can See I wanna sing, but I just don't think you'll understand
Here it goes- I guess it's time for me to make my stand

(Chorus)
Never gonna be a secret agent again
Never gonna be undercover in sin
Gonna let it be known whenever I can Never gonna be a secret agent for him

See you in the crowd,
Seen you here before, are you like me?
Seen you're face before,
And I've often wondered- do you believe?
I know there's something there from you, from everything I've seen
Are you undercover too? Together You and I we could be free

(chorus)
(Guitar Solo)
(Chorus)
