Hear the drummer get wicked

It's time to rock, it's time to play
So everybody jump up if you feel the same way
We're gonna hit you with a new style
Listen up 'cause we're be here awhile

Take your time but give us a chance
And now's your time for sing and dance
Take a break from the norm we done for so long
Praise Jesus Christ with a new kind of song

It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the world

It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the

Hear the drummer get wicked

It's time to rock, it's time to play
So throw your hands up if you feel the same way
And let the sound of the song penetrate your head
And take a moment to realize Jesus Christ has bled

For you and me on a cross on top of Calvary
He gave His life for me, He set His people free Knowin' He has done this now for so long
Praise Jesus Christ with a new kinda song

It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the

It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the

Hear the drummer get wicked

Here we go y'all, it's time to rock, it's time to play
So everybody jump up if you feel the same way

We're gonna hit you with a new style
So listen up 'cause we're be here awhile

Take your time but give us a chance
'Cause now's your time for sing and dance
Take a break from the norm we've done for so long
Praise Jesus Christ with a new kind of song

It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the
It's a time of celebration, for every boy and every girl
He's the God of Revelation for everyone around the

Rock that Rock that Rock that
Rock that

It's time to rock, it's time to play, rock that
It's time to rock, it's time to play, rock that
It's time to rock, it's time to play, rock that
It's time to rock, it's time to play, rock that
It's time to rock, it's time to play
