I was acting rich like everyone else did I was acting while to do it While to do means being good to you I was acting in my element, and you in yours too
I was acting night, every single night was like this

I am young, and you are young, and we grow
Now you are young and it feels like a grown up So take your time, my feeling around you can be so cold
Take your time, I'll see you somewhere when seasons unfold!
The setting is ready, I saved you the best seat in the house
It's candle appear to be, I'm patiently waiting in the crowd.

I would never ask about other night
Only a fool would spoil it up
I would never ask about other nights
When I'm with you, and none of these girls!

It's such a high life, but say we step outside for some air
It's such a high life, let's say we make our way somewhere!

On the streets the sound of our shoes between the buildings
On the subway the floor and lights can't change a thing!

Because I am young, and you are young, and we grow
Now you are young and it feels like a grown up
So take our time, cause taking him, means taking me
home
So take our time, cause taking him, means taking me
home
So take our time, cause taking him, means taking me
home
So take our time, cause taking him, means taking me

home
