"Who Needs Who"

Oh, I have the memory of trust
I tried to keep it close
And oh I have the memory of trust
I swallow it whole

And from the mouth of you, a constant coup
Who needs who?

All I've known, the sliver in my bone
I had to keep it close
And now it's gone, the sliver in my bone
I swallowed it whole

And from the mouth of you, a constant coup
Who needs who?

And from the mouth of you, a constant coup
Who needs you?
With no one sayin', "I do."
I do.
