Am the ruler of the Kingdom of Despair
Where death rules life and sirens calls
My name is whispered, tales of fear across the land
A grim master, always in command

Now I'm back out on the hunt
Wasting lives
Hunting down the soul of everyone around

I am the Warlord of the Night

Behold the conqueror returning from his fight
Bring all the evil chants to life
You can smell the taste of blood within these castle walls
At midnight death Is waiting In the halls

Now I'm back out on the hunt once more
Wasting lives
Hunting down the soul of everyone around

I am the Warlord of the Night
I am the Warlord of the Night
