Remember the lights that left you
Nowhere to go
Just caught in a spotlight lying there
Remember the smell, your sense overflow remember my whispers in your ear.
Take a ride in the atmosphere
Save your prayers they won't help you there slowly turning your heart around
Slowly turning your heart around

You're overground, you're overground
You're almost in you're overground

This morning the scars appear on your thick skin
A life long badge that you will wear
A memory flickers through your tired mind
All your strength just disappears

Take a ride in the atmosphere
Save your prayers
They won't help you there
Slowly turning your heart around
Slowly turning your heat around

You're overground
You're overground
You're almost in
You're over ground
This gap is wide
And I know you're tired
But you're almost in
And this gap is wide

It's only life
It's only love
It's only love

These are hours that I long to kill
And theres a heart that yout long to fill Theres a hope that your soul commands
Just reach out and take it in your hand

You're over ground
You're over ground
You're almost in
You're over ground

You can crawl,crawl,crawl in vain to shed your skin
When your lonesomve servant calls, will your rise to let him in?

Remember the lights that left you nowhere to go
Just caught in the spotlight lying there
