Looking back the ultraviolent fame
Egos clash in a superstellar way
One last search and end to gloomy day
Somehow it's time to feel the shame

I tried and I looked into the rain
My all burdens disappeared
I was feeling wet again.
I'm drenched in stormy drops of life
Reborn in a deadly trench
Flooded by the times.

What's faith when it's meant to die?
What's trust in this deadway town?
One hope of what I ever said.
What's dream and how it's gonna mend?

I tried and I looked into the rain
My all burdens disappeared
I was feeling wet again.

I'm drenched in stormy drops of life
Reborn in a deadly trench
Flooded by the times.

Did you say you ever loved me?
Did you ever break to cry?
Did you think I'd lay my head down?
Turn my back and say goodbye.
Did you read the lines on my face?
Did you stop to take the air?
One last time to look back
Trace the things that we shared.

I tried and I looked into the rain
My all burdens disappeared
I was feeling wet again.
I'm drenched in stormy drops of life
Reborn in a deadly trench
Flooded by the times.
