BORN AGAIN

I know how water tastes on the desert
I got through the pain to reach another day
I crossed the fire zone to be free and wild
No more limits, no more fears that drag me down

chorus:

'cause I'm born again
Yes, I'm born again
Yes, I am

I ripped off the stamp that you engraved in my brain
I jumped into a deep river to wash away my past
I spit out a gag to say what's on my mind
No more deceits, no more lies that I couldn't recognize

chorus:

'cause I'm born again
Yes, I'm born again
Yes, I am

Your spirit is awake now
Its Light is shining bright
No more limits, no more fears that could keep you down

chorus:

'cause I'm born again
Yes, I'm born again
Yes, I am
