1. o the Night..was Dark though the Moon..was Full as i Made..my way Down..to the ci-En-e-ga with a Hea-vy Heart these old Bones..to Pull step by Step..on my way Down..to the ci-En-e-ga as i Turned..my Face to the Riv-er's Edge o what a Croon-ing toothless Crow did it re-Flect upon my Soul and now these Eyes..are dim and Sad as this Life..draws near its End but how Sun-lit..and Glad they'll be to See you once a-Gain

Chorus

the Fair-est of a-ll Things
was My love..My love..and Bro-ken Hearts the Fair-est of Ev-ery-Thing through the Heart-ache And..the Shat-ter-ing was My love..My love..M-y Love

2. see the Bright..red Scarf in her Dark..brown Hair as she Twirls..as she Spins..in the ci-En-e-ga tender Hand...in Mine those me-Sti-zo Eyes playing Tricks..upon a Fool..from the ci-En-e-ga as the Band...played On as we Danced..en-Twined the floor like Air..i took her There and then she Laughed..and made me Blind but when the Lamps..had all gone Down and the Breeze..came rolling Through like a Babe in..my Arms she slept our Bo-dies Clothed in Dew

3. o the Guns..rang Out and the Hor-ses Screamed as the War..raged like a Flood..through the ci-en-e-ga to the Church..we Ran through the Bro-ken Glass dripping Tears and drops of Blood on the ci-En-e-ga and we Knelt...in Fear as her Blood..seeped Out through my Hands..upon her Breast that soon went Still..and stilled my Doubts that nothing Fin-er could I Lose in this World..of Smoke and Fire than my La-dy..so Love-ly in this Lost land..of Li-ars
