it's a fact, I know it there's somethings I can't live down yes indeed, I've blown it it's a black eye on the gang no one's gonna take the pair of scissors stuck in my arm from you no one's gonna try to repair the messages that you pushed me to look out, falling boy comes down he's about to take you out (oh, everybody now) as the wind is screaming through his ears it's a very private sound (oh, everybody now) no one likes me when I'm shy caught up in a bet I've lost again caught up in the trap I don't wanna be in no more

you forget I'm awake
I forget I'm awake
you forget I'm awake
I forget I'm awake

I want to breathe in blue
I want to breathe in blue
I want to breathe in blue
(green as the sky from under the pond)
I want to breathe in blue
I want to breathe in blue (clear, so it must be a mirage)
I want to breathe in blue
I want to breathe in blue
(green as the sky from under the pond)
I want to breathe in blue
I want to breathe in blue
(I wanna breathe in blue, too, may I?)
I want to breathe in blue
