I feel so far from everything,
I try to find a silver lining and everything around me
fades;
And dreams of you have turned to grey.
I tried to keep a simple faith that love will find me here someday.
And all the lines that we have made, burned in time and fade away.

And I'm losing hope to much this days
And in your love I'm swept away
Can you put me in and keep me safe?
Can you put me in and keep me safe

I dreamed of you among the waves
And we were sailing to our place
And when I awoke you went away
I see how fast this dreams can change

And I'm losing hope to much this days
And in your love I'm swept away
Can you put me in and keep me safe?
Can you put me in and keep me safe

And I'm losing hope to much this days
And in your love I'm swept away
Can you put me in and keep me safe?
Can you put me in and keep me safe

Put me in and keep me, keep me, keep me safe
Put me in and keep me, keep me, keep me safe
Put me in and keep me, keep me, keep me safe
Put me in and keep me, keep me, keep me safe

Put me in and keep me safe
In your love I'm swept away
In your love, in your love
In your love I'm swept away
In your love, in your love
