They're so proud of this city's history
Like an old war hero reveleing inin his faded glory
But the present day, that's another story
The old buildings they're so proud of are crumbling down
And the condos in the picturesque part of town
Are sinking, sinking into the bay
But that's ths way I like it
Don't want a utopian society
Yeah, it's fucked up and two-faced just like me
The quaint scenery can't hide the fact
That it's a cultureless wasteland
But they're so proud...of what?
Proud of such a nice little suburbia
Still living in the shadow of the zodiac killer
Maybe it was the toxins in the water
Well, you can't beat the cheap rent
Who needs water or electricity?
We're all far from perfect
And we got our own hypocritical community
Yeah, raise a family
Hang out and watch TV
And go feed the grebes
Unt.Unt.Unt.
