It's such a damn disgrace
To see the human race
Fall to pieces right in front of me
There's got to be a way
I heard somebody say
But you must kneel to my philosophy
Looks like a higher kind of life
What I need
Looks like a higher kind of life
Oh, help me, I don't want to be wrong
Someone told me and someone said
Looks like a higher kind of life
But I won't do it, do it, do it again
Now I'm looking at the sun
And I'm not the only one
Blinded by new found authority
He speaks to me the word
In a way I never heard
I'm the product of his personality
Looks like a higher kind of life
What I need
Looks like a higher kind of life
Oh, help me, I don't want to be wrong
Someone told me and someone said
Looks like a higher kind of life
But I won't do it, do it, do it again
Round and round and round we go
Welcome to the one man show
Round and round and round we go
Welcome to the one man show
Round and round and round we go
Welcome to the one man show
Round and round and round we go
Welcome to the show
Looks like a higher kind of life
What I need
Looks like a higher kind of life
Hey, help me, I don't want to be wrong
Someone told me and someone said
Looks like a higher kind of life
But I won't do it, do it, do it again
Looks like a higher kind of life

What I need
Looks like a higher kind of life
Don't you help me?
Someone told me and someone said
Looks like a higher kind of life
But I won't, no I won't, no I won't do it again
