Dangerous feelings flowing through his veins
The picture's getting clearer, the truth starts to stain
No more living for nothing, you break your back just to get through the day
The time has come for him to face the day
Darkness hides away fear
Lick the wound and pray
Too many days running naked
For all mankind
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Patience always leaves him so uptight, yeah
Soon the master speaks his voice strong with delight
No more living for nothing, his pain is still digging away
Reaching out he tries to change the game
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Something came into his life and told him they were wrong
Never trust the higher paid cause they're the worst of all
Day and night they move so slow, the end is what I fear
Hate is just another pain and pain's a friend of mine
Get him something, he's lonely
Screaming voices they pray
He sees the light of the lonely
For all mankind
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
Into the light of day
