I don't want to say that it's the end of the world
But I'm off to meet my brothers to give my mother back to earth
And I know that when I go the landscape is gonna look the same Everything has changed in me but nothing has really changed:
It's the same sun, and the same sky and the same people with narrow minds
Keep a straight line in a crazy time
True life in a million lies Crawling up, crawling up, crawling upâ€¦ They're crawling up
All around, all around, all aroundâ€¦ They're all around

How can it be, everything's so sweet?
I should be crawling on my knees
Shouldn't I be sleeping my days away?
Shouldn't I be so deep down?

A second here, and a second there
I get consumed and swallowed and thrown around
A second here, but a million years away
It's all pretty, it's all awful
I loved your voice, I loved your voice
I loved hearing your voice and I hate hearing myself saying so
Under the same moon, and the same stars
Still all these thoughts, put behind bars
So many drunken eyes to see what we see Fingers like radars, so sensitive

How can it be, everything's so sweet?
I should be crawling on my knees
Shouldn't I be sleeping my days away?
Shouldn't I be so deep down?

Should I believe in your cool entrance?
I should be leaving straight away
