I can feel it as you float through the sky
Really feel it as I stare in your eyes
I need it, yes you did it
What no one has done to me
You've been right there, through the rain and the storm
You were right there to get my heart through the darkness
Through my troubles, you always rescued me

I know I can live in this moment free
And baby I'm right here, yes I'm right here
You're my destiny

You're a fighter, you've been fighting for me
A survivor, everything that I need
You're the music, you're the melody that I fuse with
All the love energy that I give to you, only give to you
All I want is you, all I need is you
You always rescued me

I know I can live in this moment free
And baby I'm right here, yes I'm right here
You're my destiny

I know I can live in this moment free
And baby I'm right here, yes I'm right here
You're my destiny

The air that I breathe, no more wishing
No more hoping
You're the love from my life
You're the passion that flows inside my soul
You make me come alive, you make me realize
That I can fly

I know I can live in this moment free
And baby I'm right here, yes I'm right here
You're my destiny

I know I can live in this moment free
And baby I'm right here, yes I'm right here

You're my destiny

The air that I breathe
