Are you broken, are you broken, baby? Let me hear ya, let me hear ya, girl

Yeah, baby's got a problem, baby's got a spell Baby's got a handgun but I ain't gonna tell Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby

Watcha drinkin', whatcha drinkin', baby? Why are you sleeping in the backseat of your car?

Yeah, you got a big mouth and I bet you think you're clever

But ain't no one gonna cry when you die a dead rebel Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby

And all you gotta do is hey, hey make a little trouble Give me one mistake and break it out on the double Baby stay awake, take another shot Baby take another shot with me

'Cause everybody's had a real good time Everybody's walking crooked but they feel alright 'Cause everybody here is nobody, nobody baby And that's the goddamn truth

And now you're nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody baby

And all you gotta do is hey, hey make a little trouble Give me one mistake and break out on the double Baby stay awake, take another shot Baby take another shot with me

'Cause everybody's had a real good time Everybody's walking crooked but they feel alright 'Cause everybody here is nobody, nobody Everybody here is nobody, nobody Everybody here is nobody, nobody baby
