"For Eternity"

Run my fingers through your hair
Skin stone cold, but so fair
And cover you in a sheet of silk
Look so pretty just lying there Place my hand over your eyes, close them shut for the last time
Close them shut for the last time

Chorus:
Serenade you while you sleep
Now your soul is mine to keep
Washed away the tears, sadness and your fears
For eternity
For eternity

Dressed you just like we said
Placed a note on your mothers bed
There's only one thing left to do
Funny how i no longer feel blue
This will be our last worldly kiss
Your lips taste sweeter than wine
Sweeter than the sweetest of wines

Chorus (X2):
Serenade you while you sleep
Now your soul is mine to keep
Washed away the tears, sadness and your fears
For eternity
For eternity
For eternity
