(Billy Steinberg/Tom Kelly)

I had to escape, the city was getting too cruel Maybe I should have called you first, but I was dying to get to you
I was dreaming as I drove the long straight road ahead
The taste of your kisses, your arms open wide
This fever for you is just burning me up inside

I drove all night to get to you
Is that alright, I drove all night
Crept in your room, to wake you from your sleep
To make love to you, I drove all night

What in the world keeps us from tearing apart
No matter where I go I hear your voice inside my heart
It's calling me home, pulling me through the dark
Nothing can move me the way that you do
It reaches across any distance between me and you

I drove all night to get to you
Is that alright, I drove all night
Crept in your room, to wake you from your sleep
To make love to you, is that alright
I drove all night
I drove all night
I drove all night
I drove all night
