I keep lookin' for the words, lookin'; for the words:
Nothin' I say comes out right.
So I keep pushin' down the hurt, denyin' the words,
Hopin' some day we'll get it right.
Do you think, someday, we'll get it right?

Lyin' has become so damn easy.
But underneath it all, there's still the truth.
Oh, an' say what you will:
Some hearts just don't heal,
An', baby, we are livin' proof;
Oh, baby, we are livin' proof.

So why don't I leave? Why don't I leave,
When there's nothin' left to make me stay?
We're just hurtin' ourselves, goin' through hell;
Dyin' a little more each day.
Ain't you tired of livin' this way?

Lyin' has become so damn easy.
But underneath it all, there's still the truth.
Oh, an' say what you will:
Some hearts just don't heal,
An', baby, we are livin' proof;
Oh, baby, we are livin' proof.

Instrumental break.

Lying has become so damn easy.
But underneath it all, there's still the truth.
Oh, an' say what you will:
Some hearts just don't heal,
An', baby, we are living proof;
Oh, baby, we are livin' proof.

Oh, baby, we are living proof;
Oh, baby, we are livin' proof.
