Words and Music by Joy Lynn White and Duane Jarvis

Love sometimes is like a diamond
Sometimes it's like coal
Love sometimes is like smoke
Sometimes it's like cold
Now I don't always know what love is
But I know this love is fine, this love is fine
We ought to get a little, a little bit closer
Love sometimes is like a pillow
Or a bed of nails
Love sometimes is like freedom
Sometimes it's like jail
Now I don't always know what love is
But I know this love is fine, this love is fine
We ought to get a little, a little bit closer
No I don't always know what love is
But it tastes just like wine, oh just like wine
don't let our love die on the vine, yeah
A real man wants a woman
A woman wants a real man
One that understands, yeah
Love sometimes, love sometimes
Oh I know this love is fine, this love is fine
We ought to get a little, a little bit closer
Now I don't always know what love is, love sometimes
But it tastes just like wine, oh just like wine
don't let our love die on the vine, yeah
