You don't have to hide
You don't need to be scared
I know you're somewhere close tonight
I can feel you in the air

I swear it's safe where I go
So when you see me, you should follow me forever
Remember the night we met?
You kissed me on the cheek and I held your hand
But time was against us
Hurry up, let's spark this harder life
You said to me:

"Do you know who I am?"
"Of course I know who you are."
"How can you be so sure?"
"It's easy, believe me, I know.
I just know it, I know it, I know.
Music's told me all I need is you."

Forget everything you learned
I'll lead you to safety, just follow me forever
"Why did you come for me?"
"Not now, get up and run, here comes the enemy."
My news ears are timeless, they taught me how to stand and fight!
So come with me!"

"Do you know who I am?"
"Of course I know who you are."
"How can you be so sure?"
"It's easy, believe me, I know."
We'll be together in time
But time was always against us

"Do you know who I am?"
"Of course I know who you are."
"How can you be so sure?"
"It's easy, believe me, I know."

Remember back when we were kids
Don't say a word, 'cause if you do they'll be after you

Picture a world where no child is left behind
Invisible but you can see it
Take the stairs and turn around
Down, down, down
Waiting for days and days, in leave I stayed, it's like
This is where my story began, this is where it ends
Take to the sky, take to the streets
You've got mine and I've got your back

My heart is yours but time was always against us
My heart is yours but time was always against us
My heart is yours but time was always against us
My heart is yours but time was always against us
My heart is yours but time was always against

My heart is yours
My heart is yours but time was always
My heart is yours
