Tell me that this isn't goodbye
Just holding you in my arms
There's too many reasons why
You must be the only one that I need
But can't keep you anymore
I wish that I could tell you

When you lay in the sheets of your new bed
At your new apartment with your new address
That I have never stopped missing you
That I have never stopped missing you

To your room you're dragging, to your new life
When you're on your way and you're almost there
Call me up, if just to tell me
"How's the weather down there?"

When you lay in the sheets of your new bed
At your new apartment with your new address
Know that I have never stopped missing you
Know that I have never stopped missing you
Know that I have never stopped

She adored me and cast me away
Fix me and teach me to change
Waiting for days and days, in leave I stayed
It's like I will fall off of the end of here
And it kills me that I can't tell you
Oh, I wish that I could tell you

When you lay in the sheets of your new bed
At your new apartment with your new address
That I have never stopped missing you
That I have never stopped missing you
Know that I have never stopped
