I met a girl at the supermarket
I was on the run to buy me a bag of hope
She told me her name was Elaine
Kind of twisted me up to the sky

Baby your eyes make me higher
Making me feel like a tiger
Let's ride the night away
Let's ride the night away

I'm freaking out every time I see your smile
Wanna ride with you to a place for the sinners
We'd be united in your dusty room
Making time go slow and show it on the TV screen

And I say
Baby your eyes make me higher
Making me feel like a tiger
Let's ride the night away
Let's ride the night away

Those burning red eyes in the morning
Hurts me more more more more more more
For every time I have to leave you right there

Baby your eyes makes me higher
Making me feel like a tiger

Baby your eyes make me higher
Making me feel like a tiger
Let's ride the night away
Let's ride the night away
