So much frustration
So much disappointment
So many complaints
The world seems unfair
So much to do and so little time

What of your deeds would you regret
What would you do if this was your last day?

WHAT WOULD YOU DO
IF THIS WAS YOUR LAST DAY?

If it's your last day on Earth, what would you change?
Even if you cannot stay here, would you rearrange?
[2x]

Would you regret or transgress the past mind?
Would you derail all the things you have done?
All those broken promises and those lies
All the ones you hurt

It's not a shame to be satisfied
Even intact you'll feel alright

If it's your last day on Earth, what would you change?
Even if you cannot stay here, would you rearrange?
[2x]

It's not a shame to be satisfied
Even intact you'll feel alright

If it's your last day on Earth, what would you change?
Even if you cannot stay here, would you rearrange?
[4x]
