Why did you break my heart and say your goodbye?

Why did you break my heart and leave me with tears in my eyes?

How could you say you left me when all your words were true?

Let me say you really fooled me, my heart just didn't see it coming

I still can see the pictures on the wall

Of you and I when I walk through the hall

How can I forget the happy times

When I thought we were both in love

I still can hear your voice

When you would say to me you'd never leave me

How I believed you

My eyes were just too blind to see

Oh, I surrendered my heart but you just tore it apart

How could you leave me so lonely, lonely?

I gave my heart to you

How could you just leave me crying?

Why did you break my heart and say your goodbye?

Why did you break my heart and leave me with tears in my eyes?

How could you say you left me when all your words were true?

Let me say you really fooled me, my heart just didn't see it coming

Tell me baby

Why did you have to leave?

Just tell me baby

I'm begging you, begging you please

How could you leave

Without a word to say to me baby

And how could you think

That all my life without you here would be the same

When you went away

I can't believe the emptiness just hit me, baby

My heart was crying so loud

I just could not believe it

Oh, I surrendered my heart but you just tore it apart

How could you leave me so lonely, lonely?

I gave my heart to you

How could you just leave me crying?

Why did you break my heart and say your goodbye?

Why did you break my heart and leave me with tears in my eyes?

How could you say you left me when all your words were true?

Let me say you really fooled me, my heart just didn't
see it coming

Why did you break my heart and say your goodbye?

Why did you break my heart and leave me with tears in my eyes?

How could you say you left me when all your words were true?

Let me say you really fooled me, my heart just didn't see it coming
