They keep on asking me about love
Like who are you dating have you found someone new?
They keep on asking me about love
Like I'm sat at home waitinng
Got nothing else to do

Would someone call me cupid (some one call me cupid)
Maybe he's the only one to help (aah aah)
Would someone call me cupid
And he can take my heart back down from the shelf

Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits
I've been waiting in his queue for a while
Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits
But they don't seem to have it in the style
Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits

But damn it
They don't seem to have it
If they did I would grab it
In my size

Bu do doh ba do doh
Oh the shoe that fits
Bu do doh ba do doh
Oh the shoe that fits
Bu do doh ba do doh
Oh the shoe that

They keep on asking me about love
Like I should be settled there's something wrong with me
They keep on asking me about love
But doris day told me what ever will be will be

Would someone call me cupid (some one call me
cupid)
Maybe he's the only one to help (aah aah)

Would someone call me cupid
And he can take my heart back down from the shelf

Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits
I've been waiting in his queue for a while
Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits
But they don't seem to have it in the style
Could this be it? (ah ah)
The shoe that fits

But damn it
They don't seem to have it
If they did I would grab it
In my size

Bu do doh ba do doh
Oh the shoe that fits
Bu do doh ba do doh
Oh the shoe that fits
Bu do doh ba do doh
Oooohhhh the shoe tha-t
