"Why Did You Stay"

You used to tell me that you love me everyday
I didn't know what to say
But there was never any doubt, I always knew
That to me you stay true

But my heart never could be so committed
So all my transgressions you permitted

Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay
When I treated you that way?

I was so cruel
But he was so kind
Why did I feel I had to leave you behind?

But he was so sweet
Oh yeah?
Well, I've had just about enough of sweet

Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay
When I treated you that way?

Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?
Why did you stay?

What did you say?
Why did you stay with me?
