

Days In Grief

"Pledge Allegiance To Demons Inside"

Here in this darkness I try to find words
For you
Stop to breathe for a moment it hurts
To be alone
Here in this sadness I try to find light
In me
Pledge allegiance to demons inside
My soul

Chorus:
Can you hear me
Getting through this pain
Crying out for nothing
Can see me
Running down the streets
Running away from myself

If I comfort my illusions
Maybe one day they will all come true
If I fight for these solutions
Maybe one day I will find you

I hope it's not the end of my time
Whatever days shall bring
There must be a bright side
For all this pain I'm in.

For me it's not
