You gave me the words
To write this story
You stole my soul
To believe in you said and done

I bless this mess I guess
Mortal love, here is your end
Cause my regrets
Are burning in flames

And every embrace is condemned
To forget is what you wanted?
Go f*ck yourself
And every embrace is condemned
To forget is what you wanted?
Go f*ck yourself

'Cause I write this song
For the broken, for the fallen
I can't believe the last five years
I'll save myself, I rewrite my past
This song
For the broken, for the fallen
And I don't know why we were living these times
Waiting just for a moment to fly away

Repeat! Your demise
Repeat! Erase our past
Repeat! Your goodbye
Repeat! And discover who you are

Oh!
Oh!

There was a soul forsaken
And he doesn't find his way
So he knows that nothing is forever
He was sleeping in their dreams that they will never change
He was looking in their hearts that they will never break
Crying once again
Shaking all regrets

Breaking the obsession
A reason to promise
A reason to breathe
A reason to turn off the lights you created
Am I floating the air?
Am I dreaming again?
And constantly asking me if I was wrong building
My own mistake

It's time for many whispers
I can't deny it
When you're gone I lose everything
It's time to let our roses
Over your blackgraves
'Cause without you I lose everything

It's time for many whispers
I can't deny it
When you're gone I lose everything
It's time to let our roses
Over your blackgraves
'Cause without you I lose everything

It's time for many whispers
I can't deny it
When you're gone I lose...
It's time to let our roses
Over your blackgraves
'Cause without you I lose...

It's time for many whispers
I can't deny it
When you're gone I lose...
