Reflecting my time, not wasting a second,

Exceptions aside, a favourite obsession, forget 'what it takes' 'cause you can't keep us down. you're wasting your time if you don't make a sound. Keep making mistakes, deflecting the pressure Stop talking so loud, I can hear what you're saying is what you're saying.

Hold on for the ride, abuse and oppression,

a small price to pay to be the land of the free.

keep watching the skies, it's some kind of Escher Stop talking so loud, I can hear what you're saying

Is what you're saying. Sometimes we all say stupid things among our sins. We're taking our time, not wasting a second Stop talking so loud, I can hear what you're saying is what you're saying.
