I'd go running through the rain and snow,
Just to make you mine, please give me a sign.
Shoot a bottle rocket at your window,
Got your attention now and then I'll give a shout.
Remember when we sat around,
The fire burned and my heart pounded.
Go ahead and kiss me now, this could be the last time ever.
Sometimes, I feel, nothing is for real
And then sometimes, they'll say your love is to far away
And then sometimes i feel like your mine,
Do you believe that i'd do anything for you?
What do you want? And i will take it for you.
Do me a favor, its nothing major,
Could you hold me forever no matter what?
Hold on.
