I've been looking for a place to go
But she's everywhere behind me
And she always knows
Faded travels on a Paris night
The memory is dying
But the urge is high,

One step closer but not yet in sight
No matter how I climb
It seems I'm losing height
Write a book on everything you know
And you still won't know the way
That it's supposed to go

Hold tight if you think you might
Can you hold tight and stay by my side
Cause when I think of you
In the dead of night
Then it's alright, then it's alright

I've seen far and all the desert sights
I've seen wooden statues stand up
As they're brought to life
Hope is just in everything you do
But I can't leave here where I am
Just to be with you
