Don't make me choose cause if I did you'd lose
If I left you here to stay, your blood would never go away

Now it's time, we've reached the day
We did our actions and now we must pay
Please take my hand and dont let it go
Lets run to places that we only know

Don't be a hero, obey the swarm
It's destructive ways and annihilating storm
But hell do I pray, long through the night
That we will be saved by the soft morning light!

Don't make me choose cause if I did you'd lose
If I left you here to stay, your blood would never go
Search for the light, and we'll make it through the night
The endless terror has begun,
but if we die let's die as one

The end is upon us, grab what you find
Run for your life, dont look behind you
Rules are no more, wrong is now right
Cowards they run, Maniacs they fight

Ache in my chest, itch in my scar
We are cold and hollow and mercy is far
Our chances are weak, yes it's true
If this is the end then I'm glad that I'm with you!
(Lets try to stay together!)

Don't make me choose cause if I did you'd lose
If I left you here to stay, your blood would never go
Search for the light, and we'll make it through the night
The endless terror has begun,
but if we die lets die as one!

Obey the swarm

Set the keys on fire!

Don't make me choose cause if I did you'd lose
If I left you here to stay, your blood would never go
(Never go away!)
Search for the light, and we'll make it through the night
The endless terror has begun,
but if we die lets die as one!

I believe it's time!
I believe it's time!
