You better pray that you'll make it out alive from this nightmare.

Just pray. It's as they say:

Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost.

So watch your back and sleep with one eye open.

All my bleeding will stop but my scars they will remain.

Oh trust me when I say: I lived through the darkest day.

We lost our battle, the sand shivered as we fell

and we became secrets that the ocean never tells.

When we march tonight there is no turning back. No regrets.

It's time to end this once and for all.

The end of all, we'll face what's yet to come.

From depths we crawl, this night has just begun.

Possessed by hate, there is no fate. There is no mercy left.

We'll take this night and make it last forever.

All my bleeding will stop but my scars they will remain.

Oh trust me when I say: I lived through the darkest day.

We lost our battle, the sand shivered as we fell

and we became secrets that the ocean never tells.

Arise with me. This last time.

The tears went down our eyes. The final words were spoken.

Too scared to close my eyes, too scared to keep them open.

With trembling fingers, we pull triggers and we are proud to say.

That we fought back a great attack by forces we did not obey.
