

Pixies

"Watching the rain"

Visit "Watching the rain" on MotoLyrics.com

I wish there was a photograph that showed me here with you,
And I could kiss the photograph and make my wish come true,
I wish I was a humming dove so I could sing so sweet, I wish that I could steal the moon and kiss it with my feet,
I wish I was a remedy that you wanted to take,
A product of a recipe that no one had to bake,
I wish I could forget that day the hurting in my heart,
And wash our mouths with listerine to make a brand new start.

Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down.

I wish there was a fairy tale that turned into my life,
And I could kiss Prince Charming man be his princess wife,
I wish the voices in my head would leave my ears alone,
So my eyes could stop their water bleeding and I could find a home,
I wish there was a ruby rose where I spread my wings and flew,
So I could inhale the perfume and be the morning dew, I wish the raindrops on the glass would let me join their dance,
I'd spin and twirl and laugh with them and drown my thought perchance.

Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down.

Woa woa, I kinda like it,
Woa woa, Woa woa, I kinda like it this way.
Watchin the rain, Watchin the rain,

Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down,
Watchin the rain,
Watchin the rain fall down.

Watchin the rain, Watchin the rain.

Visit Pixies page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.