Helpless and pathless,
Witnessing my flaming throne,
Hour by hour, it keeps fading out,
The dream is stolen in a blink of an eye,
I stand on my knees, full of fear!

Well here I am, tarnished and sunken,
Blessed or cursed, it keeps dancing in me,
And those dearly hands pulling me up again,
The reason I'm here, full of guts!

Every night I set my eyes to the skies,
Just to remind myself that I'm not alone (we're not alone)
And every night I bury my grieves in the sand,
Just to rebuild a new hope in my blood, (in our blood)
Would the victory sing me to sleep?
I'm seeking for the answers, it's in my hands!

Mark these words
! I thrive on chaos!

Lost souls aren't going nowhere!
I've seen it, we all have seen it!
Down the hallway, down the stairs,
In a building, it will always be there!

Can you feel it now?the oceans will drown us all!

Now, keep my secrets, and don't lose faith in me,
I promise you, all that I can, I'll save myself from this hell,
Redeeming my glorious death!
