It's all been said before
By better men than I
And It's all been done before
Don't know why I bother trying
I'm on the verge of a nervous breakdown
It all happened so fast
I'm on the verge of a nervous breakdown
Don't know how long I'll last
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
It all happens so fast
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
Don't know how long I'll last

It's all been said before
By better men than I
And It's all been done before
Don't know why I bother trying
I'm on the verge of a nervous breakdown
It all happened so fast
I'm on the verge of a nervous breakdown
Don't know how long I'll last
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
It all happens so fast
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
Don't know how long I'll last

Fashion over function
Style over substance
Two things I still can't grasp
Who knows how long I'll last
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
I'm on the verge of another breakdown
