Today kept take, take, taking and what's left of me
Is emptiness and faded memories of better days long dead
I guess the lonely are alone again
They say that life's a long song and right or wrong we Have to sing it, if air fills our lungs
But I'm running out of breath my friends, The lonely are Alone again

Say something
Say anything
Just say
Sometimes we all fall down, sometimes we fall (we're Falling down)
Sometimes we all fall down, sometime we fall (we're Falling)
Sometimes we all fall down, sometimes we fall (we're Falling down)
Sometimes we all fall down sometimes we fall

And I want to be more than just a memory but this day and
This love are killing me
And after all the words have been said- the lonely are
Alone again
The Lonely are alone again
The Lonely are alone again
The Lonely are alone again
The lonely are alone
Alone again
