The way you look at me
Says it all
I awoke by myself
No one, in sight
What did I do, to drive you, away
What did I do. To drive you, away.

I said a prayer in hope you were
Only running away
I can't take the thought of you not
Living

I can hear your heart beat race from miles away

Your the star of your own show
And I have exclusive tickets
To your nightly suicide
A Pathetic attempt at a desperate response(x2)

I
Can't take the Thought
Of you not
Living
I can hear your heartbeat race from miles away(x2)

Don't give up, it's only in your mind
There's still a chance, to get out alive
This is my last resort
This is my, last resort.

The way you look at me
Says it all
I awoke by myself
No one, in sight
What did I do, to drive you, away
What did I do. To drive you, away.

The hardest thing to do is to Live for someone else (x3)
