Pride soaks in and we begin to fall
Maybe we're not the best after all
How could we think that this could last forever
The shadows engulf us. And we. Become.

Monsters.

So this is what it feels to be all alone
With nowhere to go but down
There's no where to go but down.

It has no Shape or face
But it's the size Of the world

And I can't Escape(x2)

Pride soaks in and we begin to fall
Maybe we're not the best after all
How could we think that this could last forever

Everyone in the world
Hides their eyes
Don't look into the light
The tables have turned
Reasons we're not fit to live
Written on the walls
We've. Created. A monster

Legend will fade when we all die
It's best to hide behind your mask(x2)

You're still here, and I face the ground
Maybe it's been inside me, all along

Pride soaks in and we begin to fall
Maybe we're not the best after all
How could we think that this could last forever
The shadows engulf us. And we. Become
Monsters
