The camera shook a bit

Once again

You're swaying a bit

Once again

The world is slightly cracked

Don't move, just stay there

See, it's completely upside-down

The sun has almost disappeared

Once again

And now I can't see you

Once again

The world is completely out of sight
Don't move, just stay there
Wrapped up in film

The town sways
The moon wanes
The town is aglow
You wave your hand

The camera shook a bit
You are swaying a bit
The sun has almost disappeared
And now I can't see you
