Someone

Is gossiping

A dazzling summer

Love's destination

Together on a summer morning
Basking in the gentle rain
Clear green

The angels too
Seem to kiss
A dazzling summer
Love's destination

Even though words of love
Are whispered
Lovers
Always pretend not to hear
Just smile

The angels too
Seem jealous
Dazzling
The story continues

Together on a summer afternoon
Sleeping on the grass
The green melts away

And the season
Changes but
Lovers
Pretend not to notice anything
And just smile
