Lovers
Always look bored
Maybe it's because
Lovers get easily bored

And you used to say
You liked me so much
It made you sad
So much you wanted to die

You liked me so much
You hated me
But I forgot
That's an old story

And today again
The two lovers
For no apparent reason
Will pretend they
Don't know each other
And talk about
Irrelevant things

And you used to say
You liked me so much

It made you sad
So much you wanted to die

You liked me so much
You hated me
But I forgot
That's an old story
Forget it
That was ages ago

But the two lovers
Are still lovers
So the two lovers
Will kiss and
Pretend it's alright

The two lovers are
Two liars
Just for the hell of it
They crack a joke
When they don't know
What to say

And you used to say
You liked me so much
It made you sad
So much you wanted to die

You liked me so much
You hated me
But I forgot
That's an old story

But since the two lovers
Are still lovers
The two lovers will
Kiss and pretend it's alright

And you used to say
You liked me so much
It made you sad
So much you wanted to die

At that time I really thought
That you liked me
Forget about it
That was ages ago

But since the two lovers
Are still lovers
The two lovers will

Kiss and pretend it's alright

That's why the two lovers
Who are still lovers
Maybe the two lovers
Will do the same thing again
Tomorrow

But since the two lovers
Are still lovers
The two lovers will
Kiss and pretend it's alright

That's why the two lovers
Who are still lovers
Maybe the two lovers
Will do the same thing again
Tomorrow

But since the two lovers
Are still lovers
The two lovers will
Kiss and pretend it's alright

That's why the two lovers
Who are still lovers
Maybe the two lovers
Will do the same thing again
Tomorrow

But since the two lovers
Are still lovers
The two lovers will
Kiss and pretend it's alright

That's why the two lovers
Who are still lovers
Maybe the two lovers
Will do the same thing again
Tomorrow
