Mademoiselle
You've been acting different
Of late

You've been fidgety
The head in the clouds
Or down in the dumps

Awake
All night
You've got pink eyes
Your friends
Have been Worried

Mademoiselle
You've lost your vigour
Of late

You sigh staring at
The looking-glass
You've lost your appetite

If a friend
Tries to talk to you
You just stare back absently
You've been listening
To mozart and chopin
All by yourself

Mademoiselle
This is probably
Because you are in love
Mademoiselle
So you are
In love too

Mademoiselle
Mademoiselle

Mademoiselle
Aren't you going out
On the week-end?

You'll just stay
Home and wait
For a phone call

Listening to
Chopin and mozart
All by yourself

Your friends
Have been talking
About you

Mademoiselle
This is probably
Because you are in love
Mademoiselle
So you are
In love too

Mademoiselle

Mademoiselle
Mademoiselle

Your friends
Have been talking
About you

I wonder if it's true
That for every
Love song
There is a model
In real life

Mademoiselle
So you are
In love too
Mademoiselle
Mademoiselle
You fell in love

Mademoiselle
