I'm on Cloud 9! Cloud 9!

I thought for a moment, or was it a while?
I can honestly tell you I've been missing your smile,
Come when you finish,
Or when you get home,
I'll be round in a hurry, I can't leave you alone!

If I walk that mile, will I win your race?
Do you like my style, do I need to chase?

Could it possibly be...
Could it possibly be...
Could it possibly be...
Could it be me?!

I'm on Cloud 9! Cloud 9!
I'm on Cloud 9! Cloud 9!

I sit and I wonder of what you must think,
It's a sad situation that I've put myself in,
There's no need to worry, we've been here before,
Whatever you give me I'll always want more...

If I walk that mile, will I win your race?
Do you like my style, do I need to chase?

Could it possibly be...
Could it possibly be...
Could it possibly be...
Could it be me?!

I'm on Cloud 9! Cloud 9!
I'm on Cloud 9! Cloud 9!
